Honors Praxis Lab Quiz No. 2—Sept. 8, 2016

1. How many of the 33 free data sets identified by the author have you accessed?

2. Identify which one of the 33 databases was the most surprising to you and explain why.

3. What “notice” is displayed on the home page of the Persona Non Data website?

4. Persona Non Data is an interactive artwork exhibit in which city?

5. What data is being collected at the exhibit?

6. The Persona Non Data project is one of many sponsored by the organization “Art is Open Source. Name one other project and describe it in one or two sentences.

7. Consumers may be classified in which of the following categories by data brokers
   (a) single mom struggling in an urban setting
   (b) winter sports enthusiast
   (c) people who do not speak English and feel more comfortable speaking in Spanish
   (d) pet owner
   (e) gambler
   (f) all of the above
   (g) none of the above

8. In the article “Impact of IoT on Big Data Landscape” the author identifies four major impacts that connected devices will have on big data. What are two of them?

9. A majority of IoT devices fail to encrypt data communicated to the internet and local networks. True or false?

10. In the article “Impact of IoT on Big Data Landscape” the author identifies the impacts of IoT devices in three areas of our lives: work, home and health. Identify one impact in each area, either from the article or your independent knowledge.